

Jesus' Jewels of Joy

New Revelations
from the Prince of Peace

David Christopher Lewis

SPIRITUALITY/PERSONAL GROWTH

Jesus shares the jewels of his heart

In this delightful treatise, Jesus imparts inspiring, compelling and humorous teachings on joy. He states that “the song of the Christ is the same worlds without end—and that song is joy. Through joy, perfect access to the Father’s heart is won; for God is joy even as God is love. Thus, when you say, ‘I AM God’s awareness of Joy where I AM,’ Joy’s angels come to embrace you with that joy-spirit in greater measure because you have partaken of the divine world in this perfect and holy relationship with your Source.”

How can we increase our joy— serve, serve, and serve again.

Is there joy within the food you serve your children and families? Is there joy within your fingertips as they move across the keyboard? Is there joy in your eyes as you survey the skies with me? Is there joy in your breath as you breathe anew the fragrance of the day’s freshness at dawn?

Let your joy be as overflowing as the river of life that streams over the chasm in a great waterfall of fiery crystalline energy, washing clean all in its path. Magnify the Lord through joy. Gratify souls by joy. Amplify light through joy!

(2) Gender-neutral language can at times be cumbersome. For readability, we have freely used he, him, mankind, and man to refer to both male and female as well as to the Divine. The term Man (with a capital M) refers to Mankind in general. Brotherhood refers to the Universal Great White Brotherhood, whose membership in the heaven-world and in embodiment is both male and female; here the word white refers to the white light of their auras. To distinguish the soul from the spirit aspect of being, we often use she and her when referring to the soul and he and him when referring to the spirit.

Introduction

This little book is simply a composite of a series of “jewels of joy” that beloved Jesus inspired upon me during Advent in preparation for the celebration of Christmas. Through the gift of locution (clairaudience), the Lord shared these nuggets of joviality to bring “tidings of good cheer” to edify our souls. I encourage you to read these mystic truths at your leisure to brighten your day, smiling and laughing again and again with the mirth of angels and their spirit of heavenly delight.

I believe that God desires for us to be happy! The Jesus I know is rich in compassion, understanding and peace, and a special Christic power that moves us unto our own Real Self to experience the Divine Light resident within our hearts. Here we find the only true treasures that will last—the virtues of our Father/Mother God meant for all sons and daughters of their eternal being, amidst their flaming Presence.

Just as the Book of Revelation was given unto Jesus’ disciple John at Patmos as a “little book”, so I pray that this diminutive tome will bring you respite from the pressures and harshness of a world that is often far from the reality of the Holy City where only divine love, light and levity are the experience of all who are privileged to abide there!

May the peace of Jesus’ Presence and the powerful joy of his being bless you every day as you internalize the WORD he represents and remains evermore as our beloved Son of God.

Is the Spirit of Joy Within You? May It Begin to Grow Daily

DCL: Good morning, everyone. It is a beautiful day. Because of our commitment to Jesus during this cycle, he will be coming with a series of Jewels of Joy. We know that “Joy to the World” is Jesus’ keynote. I am very excited to release and to be the instrument for Jesus’ conveyance of the spirit of joy during this wonderful cycle of the giving of the Rosary of Faith and focusing on the psalms.

Here are today’s Jewels of Joy from Jesus.

1. Joust with joyous expectation, knowing that the Lord is always at your side and that his light is delivered within every thrust.
2. The godless have no joy. The righteous delight in Joy’s gracious appearance within every act of kindness.
3. The forces of nature are always backed by the powers of God’s joy.
4. The transcendent benefits of Joy are that she always radiates enough light to brighten the darkest hour and the moodiest of souls.
5. Overcome the lunar cycles of pessimism by the solar seasons of joy.
6. The proud celebrate human-ego achievement, whereas the humble revel in God’s great doings through joy.
7. Even a short reflection on Joy brings a broad smile to my face and an expansion of my heart’s love fires.
8. My Presence is the presence of joy.
9. Eyes filled with the Spirit’s joy are portals for God’s glory to shine everywhere.

10. Retracing joy's coursings in your life will always lead you back to God's heart.
11. Parental direction conveyed with true joy will more easily be accepted and honored.
12. Joy's principles support your deliverance from baseness, and her precepts evoke spontaneity and generosity.

Jesus' Commentary

1. Joust with joyous expectation, knowing that the Lord is always at your side and that his light is delivered within every thrust.

Every day requires striving, yet your perspiration must contain the essence of joy else the end result will not be truly victorious. Every thrust for a purpose, every important manifestation of light conveyed through your being with joy etches a permanency of fire on akasha and is stamped by the recording angels, "Well done."

2. The godless have no joy. The righteous delight in Joy's gracious appearance within every act of kindness.

Where there is no flame, there is no fire to kindle beingness. Some pretend that through their givingness they have met the quota that God requires from their hearts. Yet, blessed ones, joy within the gift is the gift of the heart. With every check you write, with every click of the mouse whereby funds are extracted from your account, infuse what is sent with the joy of givingness, and the ripple effect of this light will expand your abundance and the abundance of all.

3. The forces of nature are always backed by the powers of God's joy.

Even in the delivery of intense weather, the elementals obey the light of holy purpose through joy. Look upon the fields. Witness the gale's focus of joy swaying the trees. Observe even in the fire that comes through the lightning the pulsation of joy.

Is this Spirit within you and within what you have received from your Buddha nature as inspiration? May it be so. May it begin to grow daily.

4. The transcendent benefits of Joy are that she always radiates enough light to brighten the darkest hour and the moodiest of souls.

I have seen an entire room changed by one smile. I have seen a people transformed by a soul caught up in the joy of doing God's will. The sunlight of Joy that comes each morn awakens all. Though in their sleep, Joy is there silently. When quickened by the radiance of the sun, Joy is felt more powerfully and may thus do her perfect work each day.

5. Overcome the lunar cycles of pessimism by the solar seasons of Joy.

Every season is a season of Joy if you make it so by allowing the Sun of your Presence to shine through you. I am that Presence; you are that Presence. May Joy be your presence in all cycles.

6. The proud celebrate human-ego achievements, whereas the humble revel in God's great doings through joy.

When joy is the motive, then the motor of life, which joy is, may move you far toward cosmic achievements. These are always done to the glory of God, by the power of God's joy, and emerge from within graciously. Great doings of heroism require a thrust of joy into the very teeth of despair and darkness, and this can only manifest through the conscious ones who celebrate the light within as the doer.

7. Even a short reflection on Joy brings a broad smile to my face and an expansion of my heart's love fires.

Joy is beautiful. Her radiance, like the radiance of Grace, explores the cosmos in its expression. Would you have Joy explore your innermost being? Allow her entrée into the depths of the subconscious, for when her Presence there is felt, transmutation and completeness will naturally unfold.

8. My Presence is the presence of joy.

My twin is Joy. My synonym is joy. My very beingness is joy.

9. Eyes filled with the Spirit's joy are portals for God's glory to shine everywhere.

When you look within the eyes of a conscious one, you can always see the joy of the Spirit world shining through. Look within the mirror of Selfhood to see that that Presence and that Spirit is within you today. And if you have not felt the increase of light in your meditations on the One and within the words that you speak, then allow God's eyes to replace yours and see as God would see through you today.

10. Retracing joy's coursings in your life will always lead you back to God's heart.

God enjoys inspiring you. It is his work, just as yours is to capture and then bring that inspiration forth through heart, head and hand. Every heart who is one with God is joyous, even if at times in the intensity of sustaining that oneness there may seem to be a lack of joy. Judge not those saints who move in ruby love, for deep within that expression of fiery purpose there is a higher level of joy that moves and feels above the human momentums. This is where I abide, in ruby joy, in this hour.

11. Parental direction conveyed with true joy will more easily be accepted and honored.

Have you tried to make those entrusted to you obey your will? Or with a new approach of gentle yet directed guidance given in a spirit of harmony, have you seen your little ones naturally accept and do what is beneficial to their souls? The choice is yours, O parents, to lead by example of joy or to attempt to force, through human will, without joy.

Make every work one of joy. Make work light and quick through the song of joy that you sing. Toil not. Work with a light heart and your children will follow.

12. Joy's principles support your deliverance from baseness, and her precepts evoke spontaneity and generosity.

There is truth within Joy's heart that provides a foundation upon which freedom may coexist with justice. The joy of judgment is the justice of right discernment, and fellowship in joy always brings each participant into an awareness of spontaneity and generosity in the Spirit. The blessings of those who revel in godly beingness with their brethren bring forth true love in all relationships.

Be not base. Erase the sense of selfhood apart from God through the adequacy of relying upon the Lord for all, in joy, blessed hearts. Be at peace within my heart. You are winning. Bless you.

One Cannot Be Fully Complete Without Joy

1. The treasure chest of joy is the heart.
2. Joy is a friendly fire that resonates within and clings to both giver and receiver through their time of awareness in its presence.
3. Joy supports the transmutation of attitude into a new domain of beingness.
4. Joy is not hilarity, though it may outpicture through a gleeful spirit who cares not for self-gratification, and is grateful to the Divine Self for all that is.
5. Joy's work delivers mankind from injustice, which cannot be the carrier for its light. It sings to the downtrodden and possesses those who do the will of God.
6. Finding Joy is a matter of awareness, for when you focus on appreciation, she can be experienced even in dire circumstances and moments when evil would wash away your remembrance of the divine world.
7. One cannot be fully complete without joy. Thus, sing an ode to Joy when preparing for every battle, especially all your deep internal work.
8. Joy says, "This day have I begotten thee, O soul. Now rise and speak only of the joyous acceleration of light within and know me as your loving Self."
9. Every party to joy knows no bounds.
10. The winsome know joy as Victory's voice, which speaks during every supreme act of overcoming the lesser self.
