

A misty forest path with sunlight filtering through the trees. The path is narrow and leads into the distance, flanked by tall, thin trees. The ground is covered in fallen leaves and grass. The overall atmosphere is serene and peaceful.

Love is the divine order of the New Day and you live within it. Love is the way out of your issues, problems and burdens if you are willing to enter into that divine-love state of being, integrated in God, affording God the opportunity to breathe through you, to live through you and to emanate love through you. Where love is present, all division ceases. Where love is bestowed, grace is fulfilled. Where love is taught, truth prevails. When love is at the center of your life, your life has meaning. When your life is rich in love, you have discerned your purpose for being here.

—December 17th

These daily meditations provide inspiration to enter a sanctum of love, inner peace, joy, harmony and oneness with your Presence, your Buddha nature, God and the divinity within all life.

For readability, we have freely used he, him, mankind, and man to refer to both male and female as well as to the Divine. We recognize God as a uniplurality —masculine and feminine as one. For the sake of brevity, we refer to God as he or she. To distinguish the soul from the spirit aspect of being, we often use she and her when referring to the soul and he and him when referring to the spirit.

Preface

Beloved Friend of Light,

In 2017, we released Light on the Path: Inspiration for Each Day of the Year, which we read from daily during our free online broadcasts. It has proven to be a valuable offering of short, bite-sized spiritual teachings, reminding us of the import of our ongoing self-work through meditation and inner striving toward complete oneness through love of God, Self and all life.

Love on the Path Home: Daily Meditations on Living in Presence again shares a series of daily quotes to reflect upon as we begin, pass through or end our day's work and service. These insights have been caringly excerpted from Heart-Streams given over the last seventeen years—our collective Hearts Center Community's effort to bring personal empowerment, enlightenment and inspiration to spiritual aspirants and devotees the world round.

We pray that you will be elevated in awareness as your spirit sparkles a bit more brightly each day to bring hope, compassion and peace to a world's people still reeling as a result of recent events. Let us move forward lovingly into a new era of true brother-sisterhood, freedom and spiritual unity, East and West! Enjoy!

Consider the sacred space in which you live as sanctified by God through your friendship with him. If all that you live within is holy, pure, undefiled, pristine and clear as you allow the Spirit to flow through your environment each day, then God's love will truly be present as you require it to heal all, to fulfill your every God-desire. For you see, God is invested through love within you for your highest purpose.

God's essence manifests through your soul when you are attuned to the great Oversoul of creation that gently and lovingly watches over all with great tenderness and care, with great loving intention. When you feel the spontaneity of the Spirit welling up within you to praise God in some way, let loose the bonds of all that stifles you and sing and dance and give glory to the Creator. For in this you declare your love to your friend of light in the heavens and within yourself.

Who is God? God is the Source, the Creator, the Originator. God is the Undifferentiated, the Unmanifest, the Unnamed, the Essence of all Suchness. As the Sun behind the Sun, God is the Great Emanator. God is complete Beingness. God is Presence. God is The One.

God is the Great I AM. God is Love, Light, Energy, Radiance. All that Is is God. God is Father-Mother, Son-Daughter, Holy Spirit. God is the Great Child, pure and whole. God is the Cosmos, the Universe, the Creation itself, the Ocean. God is the Circle of Life and the Dot in the Center of that Circle.

God is Omnipresence, Omniscience and Omnipotence. God is You. God is Me. God is Us. God is We.

God is the fun way, the simple path, the silly within the Sublime, the sublime within the Divine.

God is the preciousness of each person, the core and the reality of each one's being. God is the revered and that which is adorable within the reverence expressed, the believable, the lovable, the livable within each one. God is the completeness of all aspects of Selfhood, the jewel in the diamond within the lotus, the full flowering of all qualities and virtues of Life.

Love is the greatest gift that we can give to one another, to God, to the universe and to the creation. When we truly love, that is when we know God, because God is love. To truly love means to give our essence as we share our love in words, in deeds, in devotions, in praise, in thankfulness, in adulation, in song, in dance. The universe is a love-field of light that embraces all creative beings who experience themselves and all through conscious awareness. Without love there would be no conscious awareness because love is what stimulates feeling, which breeds sentient awareness. It is incumbent upon us, as we desire to become more conscious, to become more loving.

The most conscious ones in the universe are the most loving, because love extends and expands consciousness into any and all domains of being. Love furthers the field of the creation through its ability to expand light. If you truly desire to be a co-creator with God, you have to love God and love what God is invested in, which is the creation and all of his/her creatures. All creatures are extensions of God's consciousness, God's reality and God's being.

We are multidimensional beings and we coexist in many dimensions. We have our light body. We have our beloved God Presence, our I AM Presence, which is our True Self, our Buddha nature. We have our physical, emotional, mental and etheric (or memory) bodies, which are subtle bodies beyond the physical, yet interpenetrate these multi-dimensions. And we have higher spiritual bodies—the Atmic body, the Buddhic body, the causal body. So we already exist, in a part of ourselves, in these higher dimensional planes of being.

Our great Solar Presence, or I AM Presence, is so powerful that it appears as a sun, blazing in all of its divine glory. Our work on planet Earth is to assimilate the light from our Solar Presence, or God Presence, so that we can incorporate all of God's virtues right here in this plane of being and actually anchor the light of heaven upon earth.

We coexist in multidimensions of being. Our responsibility as conscious lightworkers, lightbearers, lightsharers is to anchor the light of heaven upon earth through conscious loving acts of kindness, through giving, sacrifice, surrender, selflessness and service—the four Ss that are part of the path of the ruby ray of accelerated divine love.
